ABOUT ME

A 25 years old Web Developer with a background of sales. I love creating websites that are not only functional and easy to use, but also visually pleasing and a pleasure to interact with.

I've been working with web technologies such as HTML, CSS, JavaScript and React for 2 years now and I'm always excited to dive into a new project and make it come to life.

I am experienced in utilizing various technologies for web development, including React, TailwindCSS, and GSAP for front-end development. I am also familiar with other technologies such as NextJS, AngularJS, NodeJS, ExpressJS, MongoDB, MySQL, Oracle, and REST APIs, and am always eager to learn new tools to improve my skills.

I am excited to bring my unique combination of technical and sales expertise to a new opportunity in web development and to be part of a dynamic and innovative team.
